DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

In addition to the definitions and instructions set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 33, the following definitions and instructions apply to the interrogatories set forth herein and should be considered as part of each such interrogatory:

1. These interrogatories are addressed to Defendant and (a) its present or former directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, accountants, investigators, consultants, attorneys, and predecessors or successors in interest and any parent, subsidiary, or affiliated entities; (b) any other person acting on Defendant's behalf or on whose behalf Defendant acted; and (c) any other person otherwise controlled by Defendant, or which controls Defendant, or which is under common control with Defendant.

2. If you find the meaning of any term in these interrogatories to be unclear, you should assume a reasonable meaning, state what that meaning is and respond to the interrogatory on the basis of that assumed meaning.

3. If you object to any subpart or portion of an interrogatory or object to identifying the documents, electronically stored information, or things requested, set forth fully the grounds upon which your objection is based and answer the unobjectionable subpart(s) of the interrogatory and/or supply the documents, electronically stored information, or things in lieu of identifying the same.

4. Where an objection is made to an interrogatory, state with specificity all grounds upon which the objection is based, along with a citation of any legal authority relied upon.

5. These interrogatories shall be deemed continuing so as to require further and supplemental responses in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26. Additionally, if at any time Defendant learn that an answer given to any interrogatory was incorrect when given or is no longer correct, Defendant shall promptly provide a written statement, under penalty of perjury, consisting of the correct answer to any such interrogatory.

6. “Document” is defined broadly to be given the full scope of that term contemplated in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, and includes all tangible things, all originals (or, if originals are not available, identical copies thereof), all non-identical copies of a document, all drafts of final documents, all other written, printed, or recorded matter of any kind, and all other data compilations from which information can be obtained and translated if necessary, that are or have been in your actual or constructive possession or control, regardless of the medium on which they are produced, reproduced, or stored (including without limitation computer programs and files containing requested information), and any recording or writing, as these terms are defined in Rule 1001, Federal Rules of Evidence. Any document bearing marks, including without limitation, initials, stamped initials, comments, or notations not a part of the original text or photographic reproduction thereof, is a separate document.

7. “Document” shall also include, without limitation, the following items, whether printed or reproduced by any process, or written or produced by hand or stored electronically in computer memory, magnetic or hard disk, or other storage medium, and whether or not claimed to be privileged, confidential, or otherwise excludable from discovery: any record of all or any portions of any discussion, communication, agreement, conversation, interview, meeting, conference, conclusion, fact, impression, occurrence, opinion, report, or other similar matter, and shall include, without limitation, letters, correspondence, communications, emails, telegrams, papers, cablegrams, mailgrams, notes, memoranda, summaries, abstracts, worksheets, books, manuals, publications, engineering reports and notebooks, schematics, engineering drawings, software source code listings, charts, plans, databases, diagrams, sketches or drawings, photographs, reports and/or summaries of investigations and/or surveys, opinions and reports of committee meetings, desk calendars, appointment books, diaries, diary entries, voicemails, newspapers, magazine or periodical articles, and any other record of any kind.

8. The term “identify,” when used in reference to:

- a. an individual shall mean to state his or her full name, present or last known residence address, present or last known business address, and position or business affiliation;
- b. a business entity shall mean to state its form, full name, address of its present or last principal place of business, and its principal line of business;

12. As used herein, “Plaintiffs” shall mean, unless otherwise indicated, the Plaintiffs identified in the above caption, any of Plaintiffs’ officers, directors, employees, agents and representatives, and all persons acting on Plaintiffs’ behalf.

13. As used herein, “Defendant” or “You” or “Your” or “Yourself” shall be deemed to include, the named owner(s) and/or operator(s) of your e-commerce store listed in Schedule A, and (a) its present or former directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, accountants, investigators, consultants, contractors, attorneys, and predecessors or successors in interest and any parent, subsidiary, or affiliated entities; (b) any other person acting on Defendant's behalf, or on whose behalf Defendant acted; and (c) any other person otherwise controlled by Defendant, or which controls Defendant, or which is under common control with Defendant.

14. As used herein, "Defendant's E-commerce Store" shall be deemed to include at least Your e-commerce store listed in Schedule A.

15. As used herein, "Financial Accounts" shall be deemed to include any accounts relating to any banks, savings and loan associations, payment processors or other financial institutions, including, without limitation, PayPal, Inc., eBay, Inc., Alipay, Alibaba Group Holding Ltd., Ant Financial Services Group, Amazon Pay, Wish US Holdings LLC, Walmart, Inc., Etsy, Inc, DHgate.com, WhaleCo, Inc. or other merchant account providers, payment providers, third party payment processors, and credit card associations (e.g., MasterCard and Visa Inc.) which receive payments or hold assets for Defendant.

16. As used herein, "Social Media Accounts" shall be deemed to include any accounts Used by You relating to any social media platforms, companies, or sites, including, without limitation, Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, and Twitter.

17. As used herein, "Used" shall mean registered, owned, and/or operated.

18. "Lawsuit" or "Litigation" shall mean the above captioned lawsuit filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

19. "Complaint" shall mean the Complaint filed by Plaintiffs in the Lawsuit, as well as any subsequently filed complaints by Plaintiffs.

20. As used herein, "Plaintiffs' Trademarks" shall collectively refer to Plaintiffs' registered trademarks, as well as the listing of trademark registrations in the Lawsuit Complaint.

21. As used herein, “Accused Products” shall mean any product advertised, marketed, promoted, manufactured, imported, distributed, offered for sale or sold by Defendant using, reproducing, copying, imitating, relating to, featuring, referencing, or bearing any of Plaintiffs’ Trademarks, reproductions of Plaintiffs’ Trademarks, colorable imitations of Plaintiffs’ Trademarks, marks similar to Plaintiffs’ Trademarks, or marks substantially indistinguishable from Plaintiffs’ Trademarks as Plaintiffs’ Trademarks is defined in the Lawsuit Complaint.

22. The singular form of a word should be interpreted in the plural as well. Any pronoun shall be construed to refer to the masculine, feminine, or neuter gender as in each case is most appropriate. The words “and” and “or” shall be construed conjunctively or disjunctively, whichever makes the request most inclusive.
